Check out the numbered empty spelling test templates! Printable, printable writing paper, Test, lined paper and more! Children always write stories or practice spelling tests or simply work on calligraphic skills, especially when they are just starting out in preschool, kindergarten or first grade. The practice of handwriting is something that can continue for quite a while, and having a ready-made source of 3-line practical paper is something we struggle with. These printable PDF templates are suitable for a variety of writing practice exercises. The three-line format has a darker baseline to emphasize the correct position to anchor letter shapes. The dashed midline is in a clearer color, and the top line appears in red to emphasize that letter shapes should not exceed this border. 3-Line Writing Paper More of the writing paper on this page has the traditional three-line layout used to learn block or italic characters. There are variations with different line heights, including 1 1/2 inches, an inch, three-quarters of an inch, half an inch, eighth inch, and quarter-inch heights. There are large versions of handwriting paper for higher line heights, as well as paper models for both orientations that include a name and date block at the top. Empty spelling test paper If you are practicing handwriting, then there is probably a spelling test or two in the homework folder as well. The numbered spelling test card on the pages in this section has a different number of responses depending on the height of the line. You can use shorter line heights for tests with 10 words or 20 words depending on what you need. If you prefer to run spelling tests without 3-line layouts, there are paper templates with numbered rules in the striped paper template section that will work perfectly for this. Printable paper to learn and practice handwriting suitable for kindergarten, kindergarten and elementary school.
